Audax Events on Cornish Roads

All cyclists welcome. Enjoy a sociable ride, take on a personal or charity challenge, or earn Audax UK badges and awards

Sunday 8th April

Starting from Falmouth

103km
Start 09:00

£6.50* entry

A Cornish 100 A popular event organised by Falmouth Wheelers. Ride from Falmouth around the creeks and inlets of the Helford River with views of Falmouth Bay, on to The Lizard, followed by more Cornish villages before refreshments at the finish. A mix of terrain some flat some climbs.

50km
Start 10:00

£6.50* entry

A Bunny Hop offers an excellent introduction to Audax riding, as well as appealing to those who prefer a gentler profile, a shorter route, or a chance of a longer tea.

Organiser: Philip Conroy, 5 Fairfield Road, Falmouth TR11 2DN

Both events £7.00 entry on the day

Sunday 6th May

Starting from Devoran, nr Truro

210km
Start 8:00

£7.50 entry

Lizard and the Camel Ascent is modest for a 200 in Cornwall but the route is scenic in the literal sense. Controls at Lizard Village, Gwithian and Padstow. The Camel Trail is used for a 21km section but this can be avoided on supplied all-tarmac alternative.

This event offers a straightforward introduction to randonneur distance.

110km
Start 09:00

£7 entry

Red River Blue Sea An uncomplicated trip to the far West, starting with a ride out to the mouth of the Red River at Gwithian, followed by a loop via Marazion and the high Atlantic cliff road past Zennor. The return from Gwithian sweeps south of Camborne back to Devoran.

56km
Start 10:00

£6 entry

Peter's Point takes a direct route from the old port of Devoran to Gwithian, sweeping south of Camborne on the way back.

All rides include refreshments at Devoran and Gwithian.

Organiser: Trevor Stephens, Crewenna, Troubridge Road, Helston TR13 8DQ,

Sunday 10th June

Starting from Penzance

306km
Start 06:30

£3 entry

Many Rivers to Cross X-rated event

A very substantial day out for the well-prepared and self-reliant randonneur. The route crosses the rivers Fal, Fowey and Camel by ferries and bridges, large and small, and has been updated to take in an extra sea vista above Porthscatho and to make use of the new A30 overbridge

5 AAA

207km
Start 08:00

£3 entry

Four Hundreds 200 X-rated event

A varied route visiting the four ancient Cornish 'Hundreds' of Penwith, Kerrier, Pydarshire and Powdershire.

3.75 AAA

Organiser: Martyn Aldis, Sundown, Kersey Road, Flushing TR11 5TR

Sunday 1st July

Starting from Carharrack

67km
Start 10:00

£5 entry

Mines and Mineral Railways (On-road) explores Cornwall's mining heritage in the 'Copper Kingdom' between the Channel and the Atlantic, with the optional extra of a pasty lunch and clotted cream tea.

(Order food for £3, payable with entry – choose veggie or meat pasty, and either rice pudding or scones and jam.)

66km
Start 10:00

£5 entry

Mines and Mineral Railways (Off-road) covers similar territory on a mainly off-road route using old tramroads and bridleways. Mountain bike recommended. Food options as for the on-road event.

Organiser: Simon Jones, The Cottage, Pulla Cross, Truro TR4 8SA

Awards, medals and badges

For full details of the Audax UK points system and awards see the Audax UK website www.aukweb.net.

You can order cloth badges and metal medals for distances, from the website. Alternatively order from the organiser at the end of the event when you hand in your brevet card.

Audax Kernow jerseys

If you are member of Audax UK and complete one of the Audax Kernow events you are eligible to wear the Audax Kernow jersey. The jerseys have a strong Cornish theme and are designed to give excellent visibility – you will definitely stand out in the crowd. For details see the Audax Kernow website.
