

Sunday 6th April 2025

50km and 100km routes starting from Falmouth Cricket Club

A Cornish 100 106km £8.50 entry Start 09:00

A Bunny Hop 50km £8.50 entry Start 10:00

Two well-loved rides organised by Falmouth Wheelers with profits to their charity fund.
Includes a generous buffet at the finish, cash donation welcome.

Saturday 26th April 2025

100km route starting from Wadebridge Camels Rugby Club

The Social Coastal 112km £7 entry Start 09:00

A hilly coast to coast challenge showcasing some of Cornwall's finest coast and country.
South through china clay country and the Roseland to Mevagissey and neighbouring bays, looping back to the north coast via hall control at Indian Queens, ending with a leg on the Camel Trail.

Sunday 8th June 2025

On-road and Off-road routes starting from The Mills Hall Carharrack

Mines and Mineral Railways (ON-road) 67km £7 entry Start 10:00

Mines and Mineral Railways (OFF-road) 66km £7 entry Start 10:00

On and off-road explorations of Cornwall's mining heritage in the 'Copper Kingdom' between the Channel and the Atlantic, with two loops from the hall at Carharrack.
Optional pasty lunch and clotted cream tea to order. Mountain bike recommended for the off-road route but rideable on a gravel bike.

Event details and links for online entry at audaxkernow.co.uk

Events run under Audax UK rules and regulations. Entry fee shown for AUK or Cycling UK members
Non-members add £3 temporary AUK membership to cover insurance on event

More Audax events to come

Keep an eye on the Audax Kernow website or follow us on Facebook

Sunday 6th April 2025

50km and 100km routes starting from Falmouth Cricket Club

A Cornish 100 106km £8.50 entry Start 09:00

A Bunny Hop 50km £8.50 entry Start 10:00

Two well-loved rides organised by Falmouth Wheelers with profits to their charity fund.
Includes a generous buffet at the finish, cash donation welcome.

Saturday 26th April 2025

100km route starting from Wadebridge Camels Rugby Club

The Social Coastal 112km £7 entry Start 09:00

A hilly coast to coast challenge showcasing some of Cornwall's finest coast and country.
South through china clay country and the Roseland to Mevagissey and neighbouring bays, looping back to the north coast via hall control at Indian Queens, ending with a leg on the Camel Trail.

Sunday 8th June 2025

On-road and Off-road routes starting from The Mills Hall Carharrack

Mines and Mineral Railways (ON-road) 67km £7 entry Start 10:00

Mines and Mineral Railways (OFF-road) 66km £7 entry Start 10:00

On and off-road explorations of Cornwall's mining heritage in the 'Copper Kingdom' between the Channel and the Atlantic, with two loops from the hall at Carharrack.
Optional pasty lunch and clotted cream tea to order. Mountain bike recommended for the off-road route but rideable on a gravel bike.

Event details and links for online entry at audaxkernow.co.uk

Events run under Audax UK rules and regulations. Entry fee shown for AUK or Cycling UK members
Non-members add £3 temporary AUK membership to cover insurance on event

More Audax events to come

Keep an eye on the Audax Kernow website or follow us on Facebook