Audax Kernow Events

All cyclists welcome

Run by volunteers with modest entry fees

Sunday 6th April

Starting from Falmouth Cricket Club

107km
Start 09:00
£8.50 entry

A Cornish 100 A popular event organised by Falmouth Wheelers. A cross-country ride starts with a circuit of Falmouth beaches and then heads out to Gweek and across to the edge of Camborne. Then down to Marazion and views of St Michaels Mount. Back via Porthleven, to the usual refreshment spread.

50km
Start 10:00
£8.50 entry

A Bunny Hop offers an excellent introduction to Audax riding, as well as appealing to those who prefer a gentler profile, a shorter route, or a chance of a longer tea.

Audax organiser: Philip Conroy

Saturday 26th April

Starting from Wadebridge Camels Rugby Club

112km
Start 09:00
£7 entry

The Social Coastal A hilly coast to coast challenge showcasing some of Cornwall's finest coast and country. Starting in Wadebridge, the route crosses south through china clay country to the Roseland Peninsula passing through Mevagissey and neighbouring bays. After the route breaks away from the coast it heads back north through the Ladock valley to Indian Queens and then on to north coast, arriving at Padstow before heading along the Camel trail to the finish.

Tea and coffee available at the start. Cafe control at Mevagissey. Hall control at Indian Queens with tea, coffee and sweet and savoury goods for sale (profits to charity), please bring cash.

Audax organiser: David Squence

Sunday 8th June

Starting from The Mills Hall Carharrack

67km On-road
66km Off-road
Start 10:00
£7 entry

Mines and Mineral Railways (On-road) explores Cornwall's mining heritage in the 'Copper Kingdom' between the Channel and the Atlantic, with two loops from the hall at Carharrack.

Mines and Mineral Railways (Off-road) covers similar territory on a mainly off-road route using old tramroads and bridleways. Mountain bike recommended but rideable on a gravel bike.

Light refreshments at the hall, with the optional extras of a pasty and a clotted cream tea, to be ordered in advance.

Audax organiser: Jonathan Butt
